The publication of additional lines of the GRISWOLD GENEALOGY has been delayed due to the limitations of funds and the high cost of publication. Rather than delay longer, The Griswold Family Association of America Inc. decided to put the material already available out in a mimeographed form since this was within reach of the Association's budget.

In this volume the additional notes on the Griswold families which were compiled and written up by Glenn E. Griswold have been used as the basis for the compiling. To this has been added the material secured from family association members and the information secured from the limited amount of research which the Association has been able to afford to have the Association's genealogist, Mrs. Charles Delmar Townsend, do for them.

It is well realized that if greater funds had been available enabling Mrs. Townsend to make extended trips to all sections of the United States and to the various localities where Griswolds have and do live....that much more complete information could have been secured and many more records verified.

It is the desire of The Griswold Family Association Inc. to have this volume serve as a record from which clues can be obtained and a record which will enable and encourage others to submit additional information to the Association for completion and verification of lineages. At some later time it is hoped that sufficient additional information will be secured to warrant the publishing of still another volume.

Sincere thanks are extended to the many members of The Griswold Family Association of America, Inc. for the help given in sending in family records.

Due to the high printing costs this volume covers the descendants of the three Griswold emigrant ancestors only to about 1850 for the Edward line and slightly later for the Matthew and Michael lines. More material is available on some families to almost current dates. It is believed that additional research would help in identifying many of the families which are included in the section "Unplaced Griswold Families" in this book. Also, it is hoped that sufficient sales of this genealogy can be made so as to warrant the publishing of any additional material that may come to light and the lineages of families to recent dates.

Tradition is that John became 'excited with intense hatred of his wife's brothers' and to save his life arranged to escape and come north, to Wethersfield, Connecticut. Letters to his wife indicated affection and that he tried to have her come north. Probably she obtained a divorce in Georgia but there is no record.
